Presenters
Dr. Kimberly A. Kick has a private practice in Libertyville where she works extensively with individuals, couples, and families, specializing in working with service members, veterans, and their families. She is the co-founder of Divorce Communications, a comprehensive service designed to enhance communication and parenting skills for couples that are no longer together. Dr. Kick is Core Faculty in the Barbara Solomon School of Social Work and Human Services at Walden University. At Walden, Dr. Kick teaches primarily in the Master’s of Social Work program focusing on their military concentration. She is an integral part of their program development for the military concentration. Dr. Kick has presented throughout the country on topics ranging from dealing with issues faced by military couples and families, conflict, divorce, TBI, and PTSD.

Lieutenant Colonel Jennifer Bantner received her commission in the Army upon graduation from Dartmouth College. She has held many positions within the Army over the past 24 years, to include a Maintenance Officer for the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment, an ROTC instructor at University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, and faculty for the Command General Staff Officer College. LTC Bantner is currently serving as the Commander, 1/334th Training Support Battalion in Milwaukee, WI and augments the Initial Entry Training program. LTC Bantner is a military certified Master Resiliency Trainer and has presented at Yellow Ribbon Reintegration programs across the country, working with Soldiers and their families as they cope with post deployment stressors. LTC Bantner is also an academic advisor at College of Lake County and has worked to develop their Leadership Workshop series.
