

TAKE CARE OF YOUR TEAM

Get your employees the flu shot

On-site flu shots

As we continue navigating COVID-19, it's especially important to keep your workforce strong.

Let's move forward. Marshfield Clinic Health System is here for you, and ready to fight flu season.

Take action to keep your workplace healthy by offering on-site flu shots. The best time to vaccinate your workforce is before illness decreases their productivity.

Influenza prevention is important for your company

Why? Because the flu vaccine:

- Increases productivity by decreasing time missed from work.
- Decreases your costs associated with potential employee sick days.
- Improves morale.
- Is often already covered by employee health plans.

Schedule an on-site flu clinic
